Consistent with the general policy statement and broad guidelines adopted by the Judicial Conference of the United States on September 23-24, 1976, it is hereby ordered, to wit:

1. That unless otherwise ordered by a Judge of this Court, all funds deposited in the Registry of the Court, in which the principal deposit exceeds $1,000.00, shall be placed in interest bearing accounts in depositories approved by the Treasurer of the United States.
2. That the rate of interest paid on such deposits shall be approximately that of the existing market rate.
3. That insofar as practicable the Clerk shall maintain such deposits in approximately equal amounts in not less than three depositories.
4. That unless otherwise ordered by a Judge of this Court the party or parties to whom any deposit is disbursed shall also receive the interest accrued and earned on such deposit.

DATED this 30th day of August, 1979.
